

“Holiday”

Art Show

Calling for new art work at the Encore Performing Art Center and Gallery. Located at 2035 S. HWY 33.

The next production is called “The Christmas Miser” by Sherman Sergel. A thought provoking play about an actor playing the part of Scrooge. Holiday music will also be featured by Bill and Kate Isles. The play runs from Dec.2-4 & 7-11, 2011. Your art work should reflect the holiday theme.

Please limit art work to two pieces or more if they are small. Each piece should be labeled with title, price, artist and ready for display. If your piece sells, the buyer will make out the entire check to you. The theater no longer takes commissions, but donations are accepted.

It would be great to have you bring a treat to share at the art opening and then stay and watch the play for free as a thank you for participating in our gallery.

Dates to remember:

Monday, November 28th - Drop off art - 4-6pm

Wednesday, November 30th - ART OPENING! 5:30-7pm. Stay and watch the play as a thank you for displaying in the gallery.

Monday, December 12th - Pick up art - 4-6pm

See you soon!
Creatively Yours,
Kris
