

“Steel Magnolias”

Art Show

*Calling for new art work at the Encore Performing Art Center and Gallery. Located at 2035 S. HWY 33, Cloquet, MN

The new 2012 season has been announced and the winners of the poster contest have been chosen. Check out the new poster designs on face book. Congratulations to Devin Wait, Sue Chapin, Heidi Peltier, Jackie Sathers, Susan Ketola and Edna Blanchard. They are the winners for the poster contest that will be receiving two free tickets to the upcoming shows.

“Steel Magnolias” is a comedy by Robert Harling. It takes place in Louisiana in a beauty parlor owned by Truvy. The play moves through the lives of six colorful women as they prepare for Shelby’s very pink wedding.

Your artwork should reflect the theme of the play. (A beauty parlor, a wedding, magnolias, the color pink, etc.) Have fun and be creative! Please limit art work to two or three pieces. Because of staffing issues we will no longer accept multiples of small craft items. Each piece should be labeled with title, price, artist and ready for display. If your piece sells, the buyer will make out the entire check to you. The theater no longer takes commissions, but donations are accepted. It would be great to have you bring a treat to share at the art opening and then stay and watch the play for free as a thank you for participating in our gallery.

Dates to remember:

Monday, April 9, 2012 - Drop off art - 4-6pm

Wednesday, April 11 – ART OPENING! 5:30-7pm. Stay and watch the play as a thank you for displaying in the gallery.

Monday, May 7 – Pick up art - 4-6pm

See you soon!
Creatively Yours,
Kris
